Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse, or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

The church in Corinth struggled with separating themselves from the immoral way of life they used to live before they knew Jesus. How has that manifested itself in your own life?

When you think of church as being the "assembly of God" that is in Woodland Park, how does that change your current view of doing church? The term "church" or "assembly" always refers to people who gather together—not to a church building. Does that change the way you view "on-line" church?

Kirk mentioned twice on Sunday the phrase: "Saints must live like Saints". Explain the nuances of that statement to each other.

What are the ways in your life that you have been taught or discovered that help you grow in holiness?
