1. Who You Are Not
2. Why You Are Not
3. Who You Are

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse, or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Why is it that God doesn't call many who are wise or powerful or of noble birth?

What does it look like to boast in the Lord? How can we be more bold to boast in the Lord this week?

How does it change your perspective on the gospel that the Lord didn't call you for your strength but for your weakness?

Verse 30 tells us that Jesus is our righteousness and sanctification and redemption. Which one of those is the most difficult for you to understand and live out?

How does this passage change the way you think about sharing the gospel? Who do you feel the Holy Spirit challenging you to share with?
