Faith, Resting in the Power of God

1 Corinthians 2:1-5 Kirk Greenstreet

1. The Content of our Message
2. The Manner of our Message
3. The Reason for Both

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse, or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Have you ever found yourself choosing or leaving a church because of the oratorical skills of a preacher rather than the message being taught? Explain.

When people ask you about the reason for the hope that you have, are you prepared to give a testimony about Jesus?

What concerns you most about sharing your faith with others...your rhetorical skills or your knowledge of Jesus?

When you think about your life as a Christian do you really know Jesus and does He know you?

Discuss the difference between these statements: If your faith is built on the messenger then you will lose your faith when you lose the messenger. But if your faith is built on the power of God transforming your heart, your faith will be genuine and will continue to grow.

When you think about your faith, does it rest more in the wisdom of men or in the power of God? Discuss this with others.
