1. God is Passionate for His People

2. Earthly Wisdom is a Paradox

3. All Things are from the Lord

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse, or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How does God's love for the church differ from his love for individual believers? How is that love the same?

In what ways are you tempted to view the Old Testament stories of God's direct intervention as fairy tales?

How does the concept of God's authority over not just what happens but the timing of that change your view of your present circumstances?

What does it mean that all things are yours, like it says in verse 22?

The chain in verse 22 and 23 says all things are yours and you are Christ's and Christ is God's. How does that chain change your view of the Trinity?
