Resurrection in Nature

Two Principles in Sowing

The Already, Not-Yet of Resurrection

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

What other ways do you see resurrection reflected in nature, other than just the farming analogy used in this week's text?

How does knowing your body now is designed by God for a purpose change your attitude about it?

How does having a heavenly perspective change your view of your heavenly body?

Do you see evidence for a resurrected body in your current physical body? In what ways do you see it most clearly?

In what ways do you see the spiritual birth tied to resurrection? How are they distinct from each other?
