Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Why do you think it is easier to tolerate unrepented sin than to challenge it?

The culture around us says we shouldn't judge people. How does Paul's charge to the church challenge or shape your view of our need to have people do this in our lives?

Paul speaks of the passover in v. 6-8 as a way of encouragement to remove sin. Why is focusing on Christ's sacrifice helpful in challenging someone's sin or our own?

What could you do to take sin more seriously - both in your own life and in your church?
