Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Why is conflict in the church damaging to our witness in the world?

Why is it so hard to lay down our rights? What does that look like on a daily basis?

Does the thought of a coming day of judgment frighten or encourage you? Why?

Of the three concepts Paul lists in verse 11 (washed, sanctified, justified), which one most impacts your day-to-day life? How?

The next time you face a difficult interpersonal situation, how might this text give you a new perspective on how to handle it?
