Stay as You Were When You Were Called

Circumcision or Uncircumcision

Slave or Free

The Gospel in This Passage

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Are you tempted to over-spiritualize or under-spiritualize God's teachings when making life application? Discuss the pitfalls of both responses.

Paul instructed us in this passage to "Remain as you were when you were called." In what ways do you live a Christ-like life in your job? In your home? In your recreational activities?

Similar to the Jews' tendency to make the tradition of circumcision a primary issue, are there things that shape your identity that you need to release? (Finances, accomplishments, your children's success)

Michael made the statement, "Your standing before God rests fully on Christ's accomplishment for you, not your accomplishment for God." How does this freedom shape your life and decisions?
