Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

In what ways does our American culture consistently train you not to believe that "the spiritual good of others should always govern what we Christians do?"

Would you describe Christian interaction on social media as filled with love? Why or why not? Do you see any places in your social media interactions where love is not present?

In what ways have you used knowing the truth to excuse a lack of love for others? Why is a lack of love never excusable?

Is being a "weak" brother/sister inherently a negative thing? Why or why not? In what ways is the "weaker" brother/sister still glorifying God with how he or she lives?

Where do you see examples of Jesus having knowledge in Scripture and still expressing love? Are you willing to do the same? Explain.

Why is Paul willing to shape his life so drastically for the sake of someone else? (v. 13) Are you willing to do the same? Explain.
