Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

What obstacles might we face in trying to connect with unbelievers? How can we overcome those obstacles?

Are there some ways you have reached out in the past to your neighbors to build bridges with them? What about people in your workplace? Please share with your group.

Paul crossed some social barriers of his day by reaching out and building bridges with Gentiles. Are there any social barriers in our day that we may need to cross in order to connect with unbelievers?

Would you consider yourself "disciplined" and "self-controlled" in the way Paul describes? What can we do to grow in this area to be more effective witnesses for Christ?

In what ways is Jesus the supreme example of the passage's teachings?
