Erase Division

Our Unity is in Christ

Unity in Communion

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

What divisions do you see or feel in your own heart when it comes to our church?

What is a healthy way to pursue unity in the face of division within the body?

What are some practical ways that you have found to keep the practice of communion fresh and vibrant in your life?

What does your own personal examination time and prayer look like? Share examples with your group.

How can we strive for unity in light of the reality that the church is full of natural enemies? What are practical ways that we can strive for unity in our body and in our town?
