Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

What steps will you take to apply Paul's principles of giving to your own life today?

Why is giving so important to individual Christians? What should be the motivation behind all giving?

What does the principle of proportionality have to do with the discipline of giving?

Why should we give to causes and people who may never directly benefit our church?

How do you discern when God opens a door for ministry and closes another one? Can you give an example from your life?

Why is it important for a local church to treat others, especially those who minister over them, with hospitality and respect?
