God Prunes the Branches

We Abide in Him, He Abides in Us

Fruit for God's Glory

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

What does Communion with God mean to you? How do you feel you experience Communion with God most in your walk?

How does the concept of pruning impact your understanding of communion with God?

What is the difference between mutuality and equality? How does our relationship with God demonstrate mutuality but not equality?

How can you tell the difference between fruit for God's glory and fruit that brings us glory? What role do brothers and sisters in Christ have in understanding our own fruit?

As you reflect on Communion with God, how do you wrestle with the tension between being in Him and doing for Him?
