The Rise of Haman

Destruction Plotted

Leading in Panic

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Haman and Mordecai both seem to have some historic prejudices that effect their reasoning. How have you experienced that in your own life?

Sin has deep effects and long-term consequences. Share a time when your sin continued to effect you long after the immediate situation.

Haman casts lots to determine when to move against the Jews, a superstitious practice common at that time. Do you see similar superstitions in your own life? How can we make those obedient to Christ?

Even in the chaos brought by the edict, God was in control. Thinking of the current chaos in our country, how can we see God in control?
