Humility Waits and Asks

Pride Moves and Demands

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How does Esther's posture toward the king work in her favor in light of what she will ask of the king?

What effect does waiting have on your walk with the Lord? What effect should it have?

Thinking through the parable of the wedding feast (Luke 14:8-11) how does that apply to your life as a follower of Jesus?

Where have you seen the concept of the flesh always demanding more play out in your own life?
