The Man the King Delights to Honor

Conclusion: God's Providence

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Why is Esther 6 more about what God is doing than what Esther and Mordecai are doing? What can we learn or be reminded of about God from studying this chapter?

Why do we tend to doubt the Lord's perfect timing? Describe a time when you doubted the Lord's right timing only to be proven wrong.

From what you know in scripture, describe the person who King Jesus delights to honor. How will he do this?

Have you, like Haman, ever eagerly and hastily pursued the detriment of someone else? How can the gospel help you keep this from occurring in the future?

Haman's fall happened so quickly in the text. Why should we remind ourselves often that in the blink of an eye we can be ushered into eternity and stand before the holy God? Who will you share the gospel with this week who are not prepared to stand before God?
