Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How does it affect you to "remember" your situation before you knew Jesus? How are you encouraged by reflecting on your new status in Him?

How does this passage emphasize the corporate nature of Christianity?

Explain the work of Christ in this passage.

Which of the three illustrations of the church in 2:19-22—citizens, family, or stones—made the biggest impact on you? Explain why.

How should this passage change or enhance the way we think about the church?
