Put on the New

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

What aspect of your journey toward Christ-likeness do you find the most difficult today? What part has been the most joyful?

Our former position as sinner was discussed by Paul in verses 17 and 18. What aspects of positional sin are the hardest to overcome?

How does the truth of the gospel cut through our spiritual callouses?

What are key steps in putting off the old self each day?

What does true righteousness and holiness look like in our lives?

Spend some time again praying for those in your life that need the gospel. Pray specifically that you would have opportunity to share this great news with them.
