The Physical Consequences of Sin

Accountability By Any Means Necessary

God's Sovereignty over Punishment

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How does knowing Jonah's historical background change your understanding of the overall book of Jonah?

God uses a storm to stop Jonah from running. Where have you experienced God using physical constraints to help you follow him?

What is the strangest way God has brought accountability into your life?

How can your group practice more regular accountability as you apply scripture together?

If the purpose of punishment or correction is to restore us to repentance, why are Christians so guarded with the corrections they experience?
