The Far-Reaching Consequences of Sin and Judgment

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

If God's judgment seems severe, why does remembering what Jesus did on the cross help us to understand that severity?

Is God at the center of your faith? What idols in your life need to be dealt with more seriously than what you have done so far?

Why is Jesus' work on the cross the best display we have in all of Scripture of God's rebuke, restoration, and character of his sovereignty, righteousness, and mercy?

What timeless biblical truth can you apply to your life today?
