A Great Savior is Promised

The Remnant will be God's Blessing and Judgment to the World

God Will Remove Our Idols and False Security

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

The prophecy in Micah 5:2 was fulfilled centuries later in the birth of Jesus. How does God's faithfulness to fulfill His promises, even if they take time, encourage you to be patient and trust in his timing in your own life?

Does the picture of judgment in Micah strike you as severe? Is it appropriate? Why or why not?

How can we practically live out the call to rely on God's strength, as the leader in verse 4 does, in our daily leadership or decision-making roles?

What are some "idols" or sources of security in your own life that might need to be surrendered to God?

What is one way you will apply this scripture to your life this week?
