Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How can we walk in and use this time of year to better focus on the person and work of Jesus for our children and grandchildren?

Why do you think God himself is the one fighting the nations in this vision?

God's protection is shown as geographical, physical and mental protection. Which one of these do you think you struggle to see the most in your own life?

How do we get distracted from right worship during the holidays? What are some specific things you struggle with this time of year when it comes to worship?

Read I Peter 2:5 again. How does your calling as a royal priesthood change your perspective on your daily life?
