Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How does the man being lame from birth change your understanding of the impact of his healing?

When in your life have you experienced God's provision going beyond your immediate felt needs?

The lame man's healing was before he was even a believer. How does that change your understanding of God's healing?

Peter appears to show no concern that God would not heal the lame man. Why do you think he had so much confidence?

In what way do you think this experience contributed to Peter's writing in I Peter 3:14-15? How do trials provide opportunity for the gospel in your own life?
