Giving the Right Answer

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Why did the preaching of Peter and John upset the religious establishment?

In what way do even believers struggle with arrogant annoyance at our lack of control over our circumstances?

How can we recognize when a non-believer is asking the wrong question in their circumstances?

How should verse 8 encourage us as believers to share our faith boldly?

Why do you think Peter is so direct about the responsibility of the Jewish leaders for Jesus' crucifixion? What direction does that give us about our presentation of the gospel to others?
