Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

After reading the passage, Highlight and write down the verse(s) that stand out to you.

Explain the meaning of the passage through:

Observation: What do you see? What is the context? What are the repeated words or phrases? Are there any other connections with other parts of the Bible? Is there a specific emphasis in this passage?

Interpretation: What is the original meaning of the text? What does Peter intend for us to see? Why did Peter write this?

Apply the text to your life. How can this text be applied to my time and context? How can I apply this text to my life? Is there anything in the text that God is using to speak to me directly?

Respond to God by talking to Him about what He is teaching you in this passage.
