Grace to Agree (and Disagree)

Acts 15:22-36

A Deliberate Decision

A Joyful Submission

An Intentional Separation

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Compare the intentional communication plan of the Jerusalem church in Acts 15 to communication methods in our culture today. How can we avoid the pitfalls of social media and digital communication? What are ways we should approach communication in the church, both individually (person to person) and church-wide (leaders to the church)?

Describe a time you experienced a "sharp disagreement" with someone. What was the core issue? Do you think it's ok to have disagreed?

Why is disagreeing over the gospel a different issue than disagreeing over discipleship (i.e. the discipleship of John Mark)?

Are you the kind of person that Paul would take on a missionary journey? Why or why not? Are you patient and loving enough to give second chances to people who have let you down? Why or why not?
