Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How would you say you typically determine God's will in a specific situation?

What are some ways you struggle to seek out fellowship in your own walk? What is one practical step you could take toward seeking out more fellowship with believers in your life?

Why do you think Paul's traveling companions found Agabus' prophecy so compelling?

How does our natural bent toward people pleasing hinder our practice of following God?

Which of the four councils (God's Word, the Holy Spirit, Our Conscience, Good Advisors) are the most difficult for you to discern? Which are you prone to following most?
