Who Has God Saved?

Why Has God Saved?

Now What?

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

Paul opens Ephesians two with a declaration of our spiritual condition before Christ: dead. What does spiritual death look like in someone's life? Can a dead person save themselves?

Verse four describes God's state of being: mercy. Is that consistent with your view of God? Why do you think people struggle to see God as merciful? How does the Bible's explanation of salvation demonstrate God's mercy?

What does it mean to be made alive together with Christ?

How does a right understanding of what God has done impact our understanding of what we should do? Share personally what that means for you.
