Gospel Transformation Starts with Surrender

Gospel Transformation is Contrary to the World

Gospel Transformation Aligns our Will to God's

Small Group Questions:

Thinking about this week's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?

How are you encouraged by the fact that the gospel is always changing you?

Why do you think it can be such a struggle to think of sacrifice as reasonable? How can we help others (and ourselves) see offering our bodies as living sacrifices as reasonable?

Share a time in your walk with the Lord that it was most evident to you that gospel transformation is contrary to the world.

How do we know we are having our will aligned to God's? How does walking with other believers help you identify that change?

In what ways do you see our church growing in the gospel?

What are ways you can create a better rhythm of abiding in God's Word in your life? If you already have a good rhythm, share how with your group.
